Miami Office

JetBlue Airways maintains a significant operational and customer service presence in Miami, Florida, one of the busiest international travel hubs in the United States. JetBlue does not operate a separate downtown or city-center ticket office in Miami. Instead, almost all passenger-facing services are provided directly at Miami International Airport (MIA), where the airline supports both domestic and international operations.

Miami is a strategically important JetBlue destination, especially for routes connecting the United States with the Caribbean, Latin America, and Central America.
